

A group of Morris dancers in white costumes with yellow and purple accents are practicing outdoors. They are holding white handkerchiefs and are in various poses. The background shows a brick wall, a pink umbrella, and a stone building. The text is overlaid on the image.

Thinking of DANCE

as your choice for DofE
ACTIVITY or SKILL?

Why not try morris dancing with Ducklington Morris, your local traditional Cotswold morris side

- Mixed side practising at Ducklington Village hall
 - 8.00pm on Tuesdays
- At least 1 hour per week free tuition for the spring term
- Then expect public performances in summer (Cogges farm museum, Fritillary Sunday, May morning etc)
 - Tuesday evening “dance-outs” at local venues
- We also welcome adult dancers if you wanted to ask parents to accompany you!
- Contact Richard Ford on 07796 468591 for further details