

The Henry Box School GCSE History Revision Resources

Below you will find the books listed below you could use for your revision for your GCSE. Remember your exercise book will be useful for revision too. We always suggest that when you revise you use the 'look, cover, write and check' approach to your revision, this is proven to be the most effective way to commit information to memory.

	Green Textbook This contains the core knowledge for both the America and Cold War units		America Revision guide This books is really useful to get clear and basic details.		Conflict and tension Revision guide Again this will give you the basics and contains activities to complete
	Power and the people textbook This book covers the Power and the people unit		Edward textbook This book contains the Edward unit – no revision guide for this unit		Power and the People Revision guide This covers the entire Power and the people course in basic form

Next you will find details of both videos and podcasts you could use to help you revise. Whilst these resources are great they must be used in combination with written revision too not instead of. We would suggest that you make notes as you listen and use a 'listen, pause, write and then check'.

Remember revision in history should be used to help you get an idea of the narrative of events but you will need to remember specific dates, names, places and statistics.

Video clips: These clips are all concise, giving you a useful summary of each event. They include some relevant images but these can be distracting so you may find it easier to listen to them rather than watch them.	Bitesize history videos: The Bitesize revision site has three sections for you to use. Firstly a 'revise' section to read, a 'video' section to watch and finally a 'test' section to complete.
Youtube 'Simple history' videos: These videos are short and summarise the key events, they give clear snapshots of each event.	America: Equality and Opportunity: Prohibition Wall Street Crash
